

Sinclair
Broadcasting Group
is violating a basic principle of democracy -- free
unbiased public access to information. In deciding to air an anti-Kerry
"documentary" just days before the upcoming election, Sinclair is essentially using the public airways
to take a partisan stance on the election. This is a grave moment for our nation, one I have never (in my 57 years) known to be as serious. This is one of the reasons
why consolidation of TV and other media networks is so serious. Sinclair
has the capacity to reach so many households with this propaganda, which is biased and partisan.

I urge you to stop
the showing of
"Stolen Honor" by the Sinclair Broadcasting Group.

Sincerely,
Martha Pott
